

AFRICA TALKS

Department of African Studies and Anthropology
University of Birmingham

AUTUMN 2015	DATE
Languages of Freedom: Making Political Society in Mid-Twentieth Century Tanzania Emma Hunter, University of Cambridge	Wed 30 September
Hiding the Past, Shaping the Future: The Politics of Archives, Citizenship and Belonging in the 'Postcolonial' Present Vincent Hiribarren (KCL) and Emile Chabal (Edinburgh) - with Berny Sèbe	Wed 7 October
Firearms in Nineteenth-Century Central Africa: A Revisionist History Giacomo Macola, University of Kent	Wed 14 October
The Real Achebe School: Reconsidering the Emergence of First-Generation Nigerian Writing Terri Ochiagha, University of Sussex	Wed 21 October
Religion, Critique, and New Nigerian Writing Nathan Suhr-Sytsma, Emory University	Wed 28 October
FAGE LECTURE - Muslim Oralcy in West Africa: A Neglected Subject Paulo Fernando De Moraes Farias, University of Birmingham	Thu 12 November (4pm, venue TBC)
The Erotic as Rhetoric of Subversion in Saint Janet's Juju Music Adebayo Mosobalaje, Obafemi Awolowo University, Leventis Fellow	Wed 18 November
Spirituality and Resistance in the Niger Delta Bunor Okwechime, Obafemi Awolowo University, Leventis Fellow	Wed 25 November
"Translated from Gikuyu by the Author": Ngugi' wa Thiong'o's Self-Translation of Wizard of the Crow Charlotte Baker, University of Lancaster	Wed 2 December
The Exclusion of Indian Doctors from the Colonial Medical Service in Kenya Anna Greenwood, University of Nottingham	Wed 9 December

4:30-6:30 pm, Danford Room, 2nd floor, Arts Bdg