

Department of African Studies and Anthropology University of Birmingham

SPRING 2016	DATE
Why Can't a Pastor be President of a "Christian Nation?": Mapping the Diverse Political Theologies of Zambia's Pentecostals Naomi Haynes, University of Edinburgh	Wed 13 January
John Koenakeefe Mohl and Chief Tshakedi Kama: An African Landscape Painter and His Patron Neil Parsons, University of Botswana	Wed 20 January
Issues, Class, Ethnic Identities and Religious Affiliations: Which is More Important in African Elections? Nic Cheeseman, University of Oxford	Wed 27 January
"These Unbelievers Beyond the Nile": The Geography of Jihad in Sokoto Stephanie Zehnle, German Historical Institute London	Wed 3 February
Political Crisis, Legitimacy, and "Culture" in Mali Dorothea Schulz, University of Cologne	Wed 10 February
Radicalization and Counter-Radicalization of Muslims in Northern Nigeria Raufu Mustapha, University of Oxford	Wed 24 February
A Change of Heart: Genres of Social Transformation and Religious Conversion in South Africa Carli Coetzee, Journal of African Cultural Studies and University of Witwatersrand	Wed 2 March
African Travel Writing Encounters Workshop: Three African and Diaspora Travel Writers in Conversation Pelu Awofeso, Lola Akinmade and Humphrey Nkonde	Wed 9 March
Politics of Religious Registration in Africa Rosalind I. J. Hackett, University of Tennessee	Wed 16 March
Writing About the "Other" in Africa: Reflections from the 16th Century John Chesworth, University of Birmingham	Wed 23 March

4:30-6:30 pm, Danford Room, 2nd floor, Arts Bdg